

There are five groups of elected officials who have the authority to raise revenue through property taxes. They are the Eastampton Township Council, the Eastampton Board of Education, the Eastampton Board of Fire Commissioners, the Rancocas Valley Regional High School Board of Education, and the Burlington County Board of Chosen Freeholders. The chart below illustrates the distribution of your property taxes.

The percentages below are based on the 2010 tax rates for Eastampton residents.

WHERE YOUR PROPERTY TAXES GO

- Municipal - the municipal government and municipal open space tax.
- Schools - the local K – 8 and regional high school districts.
- County - the county government, county library, and county open space tax.
- Fire - the fire and ems services.
